

YOUNG Elvis & The Blue Suedes

About

YOUNG Elvis & The Blue Suedes is a tribute show built around 1956, the Louisiana Hayride, and the rockabilly showgrounds. The act is officially endorsed by the Rockabilly Hall of Fame Museum and uses vintage instruments and microphones with a live band presentation.

Shows are available for small and large events, including singing telegrams. The format is audience interactive and family friendly, with a full turnkey option that includes sound.

The full live setup features a 4 piece band with piano and sax. The act is suited to festivals, performing arts centers, beer gardens, wineries, private events, weddings, corporate events, and charity events.
